FROM YOUR EDITOR'S DESK

1943 D Copper Cent probably the only known from Denver was found by Joseph Yovish from Sellersville, Pa. Yovish, father of two found this cent in a parking lot in E. Orange. Yours truly checked the authenticity made an offer and bought it. The local papers carried the story and the UPI wire service picked it up across the country. I hope to have a photo of it for a future issue.

Washington — E. Orange was honored for the second straight year as the Cleanest City in the U.S. in ceremonies at the National Headquarters of Clean Up Week. Mayor James W. Kelly Jr. and Sanitation Supt. Tom Cerasio received trophies for the city from General Joseph P. Battley. The huge 3-foot trophy will be placed on display at the City Hall.

CPM Writer in California — Harold Don Allen, past president of the Montreal Coin Club and a COIN PRESS writer since some of its earliest issues, tells us that he is flying west toward the end of June for six weeks' graduate studies at the University of Santa Clara. Mr. Allen, who heads the Mathematics Department at Montreal's Northmount High School, is well known as a speaker at the New Jersey Numismatic Society, Newark Coin Club, and other Jersey groups which he has visited during the past three summers. Clubs in the San Francisco area interested in "booking" Don for a late June or July meeting can reach him at 7534 Wiseman Avenue, Montreal 15, Quebec, Canada.

Grading Photos—Gerlach Enterprises of Kensington, Pa. is manufacturing a new set of Grading photo series and is now distributing them at $1 a set.

Phony Certified Checks, Albert Despres operator of the Montreal Coin Centre has been brought in on charges of passing worthless checks with phony stamp. Sol Kaplan, president of the dealers association and the RCDA, dealer association are handling the matter of charges and complaints received. For further information write to Wilson Walters of Box 536, Denison, Texas.

Middlesex County Convention held April 22, had a large turn out and appeared the dealers had a good day. A part collection of half dollars 1792-1797 was reported stolen. A roving photographer was on hand taking some 40 shots of everything. The auction held by Norman Pullen was reported a success. I would say the attendance while very good, would attract more visitors had the area been more accessible to the traveling collectors and viewers.

Club Directory—we are constantly receiving letters and inquiries from people who wish to visit and join coin clubs. Club secretaries please send your club listing of date, meeting place, etc. so we may list them for our readers.

Visitors R. T. Geisey DM1, Navy man, stationed in Newfoundland recently shipped to Virginia; stopped over to meet us in person.

1953 D double "D" was brought in by Frank Alfone of Newark, N.J. as his new rare find.

STATE LIBRARIES HAVE COPY!

Have you seen a copy of the "Catalog of Modern Japanese, Korean, and Manchukuo Coins," by M/SGT. JOHN G. SPADONE? A copy is now as close to you as your STATE CAPITAL. A gift copy has been sent to the MAIN PUBLIC LIBRARY of every STATE CAPITAL in the UNITED STATES including ALASKA and HAWAII. As soon as time permits a gift copy will be sent to the libraries of every AIR FORCE BASE in the UNITED STATES.

You don't have to be an Oriental coin collector to enjoy this book, because it has some information of great importance for all Numismatists. The black book with the fierce golden dragon head on its cover tells you "Why and How" people started collecting coins, how values are determined, through the different methods of cleaning coins.

Dear Sir:

What do you think about these as unusual finds? $1 silv. cert. Hawaii overprint in Fine, 1926s Liberty Standing Quarter with extra fold in Good, an early 18th century French token in Very Fine, 1943 steel cent with clipped planchet in Very Fine plus.

What do you think are the chances of coming across any of these in change? Have other collectors found these? I figure the first three to be the hardest to find in change.

This is my third year with your magazine and I still think its tops for size, material, news and pure reading enjoyment. Keep her flying.

DON'T GIVE UP!

Dear Sir:

While looking through a roll of pennies today, I received a great surprise. It was a 1914-D cent. Although I have heard of people finding such rarities, I had given up hope of ever finding one. But I can see now that it is possible for ANYONE (including me) to find the key coins in circulation.

The "Coin Press Magazine" has been a great success, and I think every collector should subscribe to it. It has been very valuable to me and to many others. I have saved all of my back issues and they have proven to be a storehouse of knowledge.

During the month of May the Money Museum of National Bank of Detroit will greet its 50,000th visitor. The Museum, which opened a year ago, displays the Nate S. Shapero collection of coins, currency and odd and curious media of exchange. The 12,000 specimens, collected over forty years, relate the story of civilization as seen through numismatics.

One of the most recently acquired and certainly the largest of the monetary units on display is a huge 870-pound cartwheel of Yap Stone money — the largest to leave Yap Island. New exhibits also highlight the disastrous results of uncontrolled inflation in the German Weimar Republic following the end of the first World War, and the coins and currency of the American Civil War.

The unique method of displaying the collection has attracted international interest through eight articles which have appeared in numismatic journals published in other lands. The Museum Director, Rear Admiral Oscar H. Dodson, USN (Ret.), has appeared before many audiences throughout the nation, publicizing the significant contribution of numismatics to various fields of knowledge.

In planning for the joint convention of the American and Canadian Numismatic Associations in Detroit in 1962, the Museum staff is preparing additional displays of special interest both to the beginning and the advanced collector.

The Money Museum, located in the Main Office of the National Bank of Detroit, is open to the public from 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays and until 5:30 Fridays.

This Group Feels Lucky

There's still gold in them there hills at Dahlonega! The site of America's first gold rush will be re-discovered this summer by guests at the American Numismatic Association's 70th annual convention to be held August 16 through 19 at the Atlanta Biltmore Hotel in Atlanta, Ga.

Planned for one (maybe two) of the four fun-filled days of the convention is a guided bus tour to the gold fields of Dahlonega, 72 miles north of Atlanta on U. S. Highway 19 and Georgia Routes 52 and 60.

Pack up your old blue jeans, shorts, or slacks, and sturdy shoes, —don't forget your camera and the children. Come on, y'all! We're heading for Dahlonega and the gold boom of 1961!

Named from the Cherokee Indian term "TA LO NE GA" (place of yellow metal), Dahlonega is not a "ghost town," but a thriving mountain city amid spectacular Blue Ridge Mountain scenery, a favorite spot for trout fishing and deer hunting. It is located in the richest section of the gold-bearing ore belt from the Carolinas southwestward to Alabama.

CALHOUN GOLD MINE

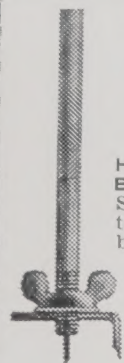

1 Mi. ← Famous Calhoun gold mine where it is said vein gold was first discovered in Georgia by white men. In 1828 while deer hunting Benjamin Parks, of Dahlonega, accidentally found quartz gold in pockets or lodes. His find was so rich in gold that it was yellow like yolk of eggs. Shortly after discovery this mine was sold to U. S. Senator John C. Calhoun, of South Carolina. It was operated by Thomas G. Clemson, son-in-law of Calhoun, and some of the gold was used to found Clemson College, S. C. Specimens from this mine are exhibited at the State Capitol in Atlanta.

If tall and lanky Benjamin Parks, at age 26, could stroll through the winter-frozen fields of Lumpkin County and kick up a chunk of gold, —and he did, 'way back in 1828, —we can, too!

That's how it all started. Parks was hunting deer, but he hadn't sighted one all day. Tired and cold, he suddenly tripped over a stone. He picked it up and in disgust threw it hard against another rock. It shattered —and there lay a glitter of gold.

Thus began America's first gold rush 133 years ago, which led to the establishment of a U. S. branch mint at Dahlonega in 1837. A total of $6,115,596 in gold coins was turned out from 1838 to 1861. It is said that gold mines in the area yielded from $16,000,000 to $20,000,000 in the ten year period before 1839.

GOLD-ANGEL

Having read Ezio Rampellini's poem in the last issue of "Coin Press", I thought you might be interested in some more poetry. The enclosed poem is by Edward Taylor (1642-1729). Born in England, he came to Massachusetts and was in the Harvard Class of 1671. He then went to Westfield to be the minister there. Taylor wrote for his own pleasure and his poems remained as undiscovered manuscripts in the Yale library until 1937.

Taylor called this poem "Meditation Six" but I prefer to think of it as "The Numismatists' Prayer." I thought the whole figure of being a gold coin was very cleverly used as a comparison. As you may know, the word "angel" is a play on words as an old English gold coin was called an angel.

Thought you might enjoy it.

"MEDITATION SIX"

By Edward Taylor

Am I thy gold? Or Purse, Lord,
for thy Wealth;
Whether in mine or mint refined for thee?
I'm counted so, but count me
o'er thyself,
Lest gold washed face, and brass in Heart I be.
I Fear my Touchstone touches
when I try
Me and my Counted Gold too overly.

Am I new minted by they Stamp indeed?
Mine Eyes are dim; I cannot clearly see.

Be thou my Spectacles that I may read
Thine Image and Inscription stamped on me.

If thy bright Image do upon me stand.

I am a Golden Angel in thy hand.

Lord, make my Soul they Plate:
thine Image bright Within the Circle of the same enfoil.

And on its brims in golden Letters write

Thy Superscription in an Holy style.

Then I shall be thy Money, thou
my Hoard:

Let me thy Angel be, be thou my Lord.

—O—

Dear Editor:

First I would like to compliment you and your staff on your magazine.

As I was going through some 1961-D pennies I found one that resembles the 1960-D bush cent.
On the left side of the steps on the memorial building there is a bush, but the bush is at the very bottom of the steps.

Also the monogram on the roof on the building there are three of them missing. On some of the cents the bottom half of the S in Pluribus is filled. I found many of each variety of cents.

Dear Frank:

Enclosed is my check for $3.
for one year's subscription renewal. Regarding Nick Salim-bene's article about the 1960-P small date Lincoln cent in your recent issue of "The Coin Press".

The 1960-P small date cent is here to stay. Along with the 1909-S, 1924-D and the 1914-D.
As a part and key coin in the Lincoln set. I sorted about 300-000 cents the past year and found 15 circulated 1960-P small date cents. The No. 2 Whitman Blue Coin Folder should have a designed slot for this cent. I consider this cent a scarce item. I still have the first issue of your Flying Eaglet, dated May 1, 1955.

CANADIAN COIN PATTERNS

By EARL A. McBRAYER 498 Sunland Drive, Cincinnati 38, Ohio

Recently we had a chance to talk with a gentleman who, along with a partner, went through over a million Canadian cents in 1960. He felt that his experience entitled him to make certain observations on the present trend in the Canadian coin market. We pass them along to you for what they may or may not be worth.

First of all, according to the number found in circulation per thousands of coins handled, the 1925 cent is an underpriced sleeper. It should be nearer to the 1923 cent in value than what it is. (We concur in this opinion and recent price advances of the past few weeks appear to be slightly higher for the 1925 than for the 1923 among the dealers who really know what is going on.)

There are 1927 and 1931 cents available in larger quantities than the recent "buy" and "sell" activity would seem to indicate. Somebody might get hurt if this is true and a quantity holder or two decides to "dump" a supply on the market. (We feel this might be true but doubt if that great a quantity is held by any dealer, and besides the true market is attracting such a large number of new collectors to Canadian small cents each month that supply can hardly keep up with demand. Watch heavy investment in these two dates to play safe.)

The 1934 cent is the "sleeper" in the 1930's. The proportion of 1934 cents found in the million plus cents examined would seem to indicate it is scarier in circulation than mintage figures justify. (Dealers have others in the later 1930's.)

Buy 1948 cents at .75¢ a roll if you can get them. They show no premium in most dealers' buying lists but they are worth it for investment. (This is possibly true of 1938 and 1939 also but some of the Canadian investors are really paying 75¢ a roll for 1938 and 1939 but have not yet started buying 1948.)

Both 1937 and 1954 cents legitimately are worth recent buying flurries. The 1954 probably will double in value in circulated condition, all grades, in the next year. (So will some other dates too!)

Most buying and selling ads do not show it but a 10¢ per coin bid on the 1953 with shoulder straps cent (and a 25¢ per coin asking price) is prevailing in anticipation of this variety appearing in future coin album issues.

We here at COIN PRESS would like to hear from others who have gone through very large quantities of Canada cents or nickels in recent months. What are your conclusions?

Medallion Honoring Israel Defense Forces

On the occasion of the 13th Anniversary of the State of Israel a gold medallion was struck to honor the Bar Mitzvah year of the establishment of Israel's Defense Forces.

The term Bar Mitzvah first occurs in the Talmud (B.M.96a) and applies to every grown Israelite. It is connected with the assumption of responsibility by a boy at the age of thirteen. The Bar Mitzvah ceremony served to motivate a period of training which led up to an individual's intelligent acceptance of responsibility as a member of the Jewish religious group.

In Biblical times the age of maturity was set at twenty, the age at which the individual was capable of bearing arms. But during the early days of modern Israel Bar Mitzvah boys and girls were among the defenders of their land.

Before the First World War the "Hashomer" (Watchman) organization existed in Palestine whose duty was to defend the Jewish settlements from the Arab attackers. After World War I Hashomer was dissolved and replaced by the "Hagana" (Defences). This became a substantial force, successfully defending Jewish lives and property especially during the riots in 1921, 1929, and 1936-39. At the outbreak of World War II, 25,000 young men and women joined the Jewish battalions of British army. These battalions prepared the way for the establishment of Israel Defense Forces immediately after the establishment of the Jewish State on May 14, 1948.

The medallion designed by the graphic artist, Jacques Ducas, shows in the center a sword with entwined olive branch (a former Hagana emblem) and the words in Hebrew and English, "Emblems of Tsava Hagana L'Israel"; two six-pointed stars appear on each side of the legend. The obverse side depicts the emblems of the Defense forces: Right — Infantry; Left — Air Force; Top—Navy; Bottom—Paratroops. In the center the Hebrew and English dates 1948-1961 appear. Gold content 22 Karat. Weight Approx. 231 grain Diameter 27 mm.

As an educational feature each purchaser of the gold medallion will receive 2 gifts from the representative of "Maarachot" — Publishing House of the Israel Ministry of Defense in Israel — a free illustrated copy of the official booklet showing the emblem of the Israel Defense Forces (163 illustrations) and a Pictorial Review of Israel's Defense Army (390 beautiful photographs), an album of historical value. The foreword has been written by the Prime Minister and Minister of Defense, Mr. David Ben Gurion.

A silver medallion is also available. Purchasers will receive a memorable free gift — a booklet depicting the Emblems of Israel Defense Forces (163 illustrations).

The silver medallion weighs 30 gr. Diameter 1 1/2 inch.

This project is authorized by the Israel Ministry of Defense.

3000 gold and 5000 silver medallions have been allocated for distribution in the United States.

The Israel Coin Distributors Corporation in New York, representatives for the Western Hemisphere, further reports that the medallions will be available April 21, 1961

ALUMINUM ANNIVERSARY IS COIN DISPLAY THEME

The Chase Manhattan Bank Museum of Moneys of the World honored Charles Martin Hall and the 75th anniversary of his discovery of the electrolytic reduction process for aluminum in a recent exhibit. The display in Rockefeller Center, New York, drew special attention to aluminum's use in official and token coinage. Aluminum items from 15 countries were displayed with a U. S. 5-cent aluminum pattern and an A.R.R.C. "bingle" token.

Flanking the exhibit to the left was a photo of Hall to whom The Aluminum Association paid tribute on February 16. To the right was a reprint copy of "Aluminum Coins" by Martin Kortjohn.

STAMP MILL AT PIONEER GOLD MUSEUM
The operator is Roy Phillipson

Later mining yielded some $25,000,000 in gold, and the last recent operation of importance followed the Dugas Strike of 1938 at the Calhoun mine when a small section of ore assaying $60,000 per ton was uncovered.

Visitors can still see the original John C. Calhoun mine once owned and operated by the famous South Carolina senator; several Yahoola Creek mines; the Findley, Crown Mountain, Barlow, Battle Branch, Ralston Branch and others; the site of the 1900 operation, "Old Consolidated," where millions were invested and thousands taken out.

On display at nearby North Georgia College, a co-educational four-year college of the State University System, is a fine collection of Dahlonega gold coins, one of a very few sets known. Here, too, you can see the huge granite blocks of the original foundation of the former Mint Building, —the original weights and measures, and old clocks saved from the Mint Building.

Dahlonega hosteler Bill Fry will welcome you at the Smith House with its famous family-style luncheon, an adventure in eating that you'll long remember.

A few blocks from the city public square in the rustic Pioneer Gold Museum, developed by Bill Fry and now operated by the Dahlonega-Lumpkin County Chamber of Commerce. The century-old, barnlike building was a gold miner's machinery shop and has been converted into a "gold museum."

Here, where "color" may still be washed in every panful of earth, are mementos of the days of primitive gold-mining. Besides an old water-wheel replica, you will see the only gold-ore crushing stamp mill in operation east of the Mississippi, the portable mortar and pestle used by gold seekers; and conversion of gold dust into the "gold button" by means of the "retort" will be explained by museum guides Carl Weaver and Roy Phillipson

Photos courtesy of Dahlonega Lumpkin County Chamber of Commerce

But you'll not spend all your time sight-seeing. You'll also pan pan for gold! We don't really expect to strike it rich, —but maybe? Panning for gold is still profitable at the Gold Museum or in the cool mountain streams and century-old mining "gulches" —and you can keep all the gold you find!

Convention visitors may wish to extend their stay beyond convention dates and return to Dahlonega for more gold-panning. Thar's still gold in them thar hills!

HOW TO PAN FOR GOLD

Panning is a process of testing earth, sand, small gravel for gold content; not a method of obtaining gold on a large scale.

(1) Fill the pan three-fourths full of panning dirt; place under water in trough or stream. (2) Stir dirt, suspend mud, let gravel settle, pour our mud. Repeat until gravel is free of mud. (3) Dip up water, shake pan three or four times back and forth. (4) Shake pan, tilt as pan is shaken, let ore slide to edge of pan, pushing off gravel with thumb. Repeat until gravel is removed and only black sand is left. (5) Add about teacup of water to black sand, shake, tilt pan raking off black sand until black sand is reduced to one-half teaspoonful. (6) Add about one-fourth cup of water, let black sand swirl along bottom of pan; any "color" of gold found will be seen at the end of the gold trail.

Survey Report Of Scarce And Rare Coins

1918/17 S Quarter Uncirculated Rates With The Best!

Reports are being received daily regarding our Rare Coin Survey from all parts of the country. Have you sent your list in? Your name and address won't be mentioned. From the compiled reports received we are setting up a chart and will in a future issue publish it with the amount known up to date and add on to it monthly. This survey will show what amount is known and available from the actual amount struck at the Mints. Your help and letters are needed to make this survey as accurate as possible.

Regarding the above Unc. Quarter our assumption appears correct, it is a very rare issue and should be classed with other real rarities. The response to a survey of the 1918/17 S in Unc. brought only two inquiries 1 unc. 1 fine, a circulated over date. I would say possibly 8 are known for every unc. that is known, which is still very rare even as circulated.

Back in 1950 I remember a collector Louis F. of Newark, N.J., who owned complete sets of only choice unc. and proofs of many U.S. series. He made many trips to coin shops in N.J. and N.Y. buying for his collection. Now many of you collectors remember when B.U. 1931 S cents sold for $1., 1909s vdb B.U. for $12. I bought some from a dealer from Indiana, 1856 F.E. cent Proof $125. Proof 1877 Indian cent $48., 1914 D unc. $35. and many others I could list. At that time it was nothing to turn down a rare item because it was lightly tarnished or had a light scratch on the rim. A dealer really had to have it, if a sale was to be made. Of all his travels and accumulations Louis F. being a stickler for quality and rarity could not turn up an unc. 1918/17s Quarter. Dealer Joe Keller of Newark remarked about a year ago, when I inquired about one, "I gave up trying to buy one 4 years ago for a customer." About 6 months ago, stated I estimated only 6 are about known or available. Here is a letter received in reference to this inquiry in our last issue. You be the judge. This letter is condensed, to save time and protect persons identity.

March 29, 1961

Gentlemen:

You wish to hear from those already in possession of an unc. 1918/17 S quarter. I wish to advise I have one in my set of S.L. quarters. My coin was purchased in April, 1953 at stacks sale of the Ross Collection. I think it is a splendid idea on your part to attempt to find out how many of these coins are in existant in this condition. I think similar attempts by other publications would help a lot in such a census and I would be glad to share expenses if you care to try such a venture in your own name. I am enclosing a letter I received from Mr. K.E.M. in 1954, you might find this interesting. I don't know if he's still alive. Please return these letters for my data file.

Sincerely F.M.B., New Jersey.

F.M.B., New Jersey.

July 26, 1954

Dear Mr. B.:

I have two of these overdate quarters. I once tried to get all of these quarters that were to be had, I now believe that there are less than 6 in existence that are uncirculated. One of these has an almost full head. Ed Levy of Colorado, the quarter specialist says it's the finest he has seen and agrees with me the Legendary Full Head doesn't exist on this coin. My best coin is priced at $1,000. The other not quite as fine $795. You will in all probability never get a chance to buy another if you were to offer $2,000. If you are building a gem set of S.L. quarters, it will be the coin for you. I would like to call your attention to the fact there is another great rarity that is just beginning to be recognized, the 1942/41 mercury dime.

Sincerely Yours, K.E.M., Mississippi.

There you have it readers, if an overdate 1918/17 S quarter is offered to you consider it before passing it up, it's the closest you'll get to rubbing shoulders with a 1913 Liberty Head nickel, 1894 S Dime, 1804 silver dollar or any rarity of 10 or less.

This and other items prove, the Guide Books are only guides not selling, a check of guide books will show many under-rated and under priced true collectors items. Last year's guide books listed this overdate at $500. unc. yet selling for better than $795. in 1954. Back in 1920, the whole 5 pieces of 1913 Liberty Head nickels were offered for only $2,500. for the lot with no takers. Recently $41,000 was refused for one. "Supply and demand" is the by word, but "patience and fortitude" is the reward!

The First Gold Coin of Israel

Here, after 2000 years of coinage history, is the first true gold coin of Israel—an official Government. The coin is a 20 Pound gold piece dated 1960, and it was struck to commemorate the centennial of Theodore Herzl, their national hero and founding father.

Only 10,000 pieces were struck, of which 2,000 were reserved for use in Israel. The remaining 8,000 are for the rest of the world—a figure hardly enough to meet the world-wide demand for this extraordinary gold piece. Get this truly rare and important coin while they are available.

by M. B. Brady

DAKOTA TERRITORY CENTENNIAL COIN

Issued by its last Territorial Capital City.

Solid golden bronze. Authentic identified illustrations on both sides.

Territorial Capitol and Classically modern North Dakota Capitol on obverse.

On reverse, Gen. Custer from photo by famous Civil War photographer, M. B. Brady. Probably first time his likeness placed on coin.

Reverse side "plugs" outdoor drama "TRAIL WEST". For 1961, cities of Bismarck and Mandan promote it as their Centennial drama. It features "Death Struggle" between Custer's forces and hostile Indians under Sitting Bull.

WANTED 1955P JEFFERSON Nickels paying 11¢ a piece, $4.50 a roll. Mr. Donald F. Herr, 68 North Main St., Cranbury, N.J.

I IMMEDIATELY WANT TO BUY 1943 Steel cents and 1961 Proofs sets. Please mail offer to Jay Allan Wise Jr., 1020 North Vincent, Minneapolis 11, Minnesota.

WILL SOMEONE SELL ME a 1909S-VDB Lincoln cent strictly fine or better for $55.00? Ronald Neuhauser, 1935 Rutherford, Chicago 35, Illinois.

I purchase the "Coin Press" from my newsdealer — saw your photo of Double D.

I also have a Double D, however a different type and perhaps, I'm told the rarest.

The D you picture is D over D. Mine is slight Double image of Lincoln.

I have already sold two — $10.00 each B.U. But I'm refusing all sales — as I have about 12 on hand (B.U.) and have been offered $25.00 for one. Will send one for examination and photo if you wish (to be returned). Inclosed self addressed envelope.

P. S. Also, 1960-P nickels — (UNC) which have a frosted appearance on coin. —J. Brooks

"Loose Coin Talk"

By Nicholas Salimbene

Who said you can't take it with you when you die? . . . the way they are digging up "Pillar Dollars" in those Florida Cemeteries leads me to believe the "old gents" really gave it a try . . . by the way, I can not think of a better way to "age" a coin, can you?

A Martian landed in Las Vegas and after watching a series of players pumping the arm of a slot machine, he stepped up to the slot machine and whispered, "I don't know what office you're running for, Buddy, but try and smile when you shake those hands!" Speaking of Martian's . . . The problem of conquering space does not seem to be limited to the United States Government alone, it reigns as a major factor at coin conventions too . . . if this lack of space keeps up, we will all be called "NUMISARDINES" . . . The last coin convention which I attended, I was forced through the door with a shoe horn and I came popping out the door like a cork. TO ALL FUTURE CONVENTION CHAIRMEN, THINK OF THE WORD "SPACE" MORE OFTEN THAN THE WORD "MONEY" . . . The "Newark Coin Club" recently experienced its largest attendance ever recorded . . . I wonder if this was due to the "free" 1961 proof sets (issued to all "paid-up-members") which had finally arrived, Eh?

To all dealers and collectors who use their car to transport coins to-and-from conventions, meetings, etc., there is an auto burglar alarm on the market called "GARDSALL". It is installed under the car hood and will automatically blow car horn intermittently the instant anyone touches any part of the car—and continues to blow it for approximately 15 seconds after car is left unmolested. It has an "on-off" switch inside the car which can be set to operate upon leaving the car and then released upon your return. It is easy to install and costs only $2.25., we will furnish address of company upon receiving a self-addressed envelope with request for same.

My wife and I get along very well in our married life, COMPROMISE, that's our secret, I make all the BIG decisions and she makes all the SMALL decisions . . . I make all the decisions like, should we send a space ship to the moon? Should we give that country 3,000,000,000 dollars? and so on. She makes all the SMALL decisions like, what we should do with my pay, how much allowance I should get, where we will go on week ends, who will use the car tomorrow . . . Yes sir, compromise, that's our secret.

The Prince Rupert Golden Jubilee Token from Canada is really a very beautiful token. I've got one, have you? Speaking of Canada, the 1961 proof like mint sets are packed in Pliofilm, just like our proof sets, high time too.

Colonial coin buyer's BEWARE, cast coins are making the rounds again. Q. D. Bowers had a very interesting article on cast coins just recently. However, I would like to add a few more "checks" to his list as follows: look the coin over for "cold shots", "pit marks", "Spit marks" and "tail gate marks". A "cold shot" would give the impression of an inverted die break. This is due to either a hesitation in the pour or the metal being on the cooler side of "workable". "Pit marks" are tiny holes on the surface of the coin and/or edge. This is caused by dirt entering with the metal on pouring or dirt left in the mould when broken apart. As such there would be dirt specks in this type hole. "Spit marks" are the same as above without dirt in them. This is caused by specks of water either from sweat of the mold or water left from cooling the mould and times from the sweat of the castor himself. "Tail gate marks" are always on the edge of a coin. This is caused by a pouring passage to produce the coin and also an air escape passage. After the coin is cast these gates must be removed either by breaking or sawing them off . . . We warned all collectors in a past article on cast coins which were flooding the conventions and for a while it seemed to have slowed them down. However, in the last few months they are showing up again with a steady increase. This proves all the more, "Knowledge is your best weapon, Greed your worst enemy".

I invite all to send me little anecdotes for future articles, they can be from coin meetings, home life, jokes, puzzles or what have you. If you have any information that you think would be of interest to the hobby then send it to me. I will use your name whenever possible as to source. So come on, let me hear from you . . . send them to me: Nicholas Salimbene, 67 Congress Street, Newark 5, New Jersey.

Dear Sir:

I have been watching the last two copies of Coin Press to see if anyone reported that we have a 1961-D Bush cent to go with the 1960-D Bush cent. The first 1961-D I found in change I looked over very careful and it was a 1961-D Bush cent.

P. S. Keep up the good work.

I am going through some of the pennies I found 2 different varieties 1941 S small and large S. Which one of them is important. Also I wish to report that last year in August I wrote you a letter about a 1960 Double D that I have forgotten until this year. I also have a few 1957 on which the last 7 is double.

"MY TWO CENTS"

By R. A. RADICE

190 N. Munn Ave., East Orange, N. J.

Counterfeits and reworked coins are problems that plague both coin collector and the layman. All too many times both have been taken advantage of by unscrupulous people. The coin collector and the layman, especially, have both been stuck with bad bills. Not too long ago in the New York area alone one man passed $100,000 in counterfeit tens and twenties in the short time of three months. Coins are counterfeited also but not too often as they take more work, the dangers are greater and the profits are much less. If this were the only problem the coin collector faced with his money it would not be so bad. I say this because less money in counterfeits is being pushed on the public even though more counterfeiters are making the scene each year.

Often you hear of counterfeiters being prosecuted, but have you ever heard of a person brought to trial for forging dates on rare coins. In my life time I have heard of only two such cases against forgers. One case was brought up about fifty years ago in San Francisco and the other was more recent but was in Italy. In both cases it was proved that the person was changing the dates and that he had sold more than ten such altered coins before being caught. I might add that the only reason they were caught was because their work was too crude.

Today one hears of many a person buying what he believes to be a genuine coin only to find out later that he has been sold an altered coin. Immediately he goes to the person or dealer who sold him the coin with the hopes of getting his money back. However, if the person who he bought the coin from is one of the many who travel from coin show to coin show sticking unaware collectors with altered coins, the collector will never even get the chance to make a complaint. If he brings the coin to the dealer he still will not get his money back if he can't prove that he bought that exact coin from the dealer. Even a reputable dealer will hesitate to take the coin back, because many times people try to stick the dealer with an altered coin and say that was the coin they bought from him. Meanwhile the coin they did buy from the dealer is home in their collection. Some un reputable dealers will just deny that they sold the coin to you. Others will refund your money, because the return of coins compared to those sold is probably low. This is because many collectors after having bought a coin take it home, put it in their collection and put the collection away not bringing the coin out again until they want to show it to their friends. When doing so they are so filled with excitement that even if the alteration could be seen they would not notice it now. Often times the alteration is brought to their attention by their friends collectors, who will examine the coin to see if there is anything wrong with it so that they can satisfy their ego.

If the swindled collector accuses someone he will have a rough time trying to make the accusation hold. The swindler can always plead that he was taken in also and to prove his sincerity will refund the irred collectors money.

I can think of no solution to this problem and doubt if there is one. The only chance the collector has is if he is over cautious in his purchases. If, however, you are ever stuck I suggest that you report this to one of the many numismatic societies, A.N.A., for example. I am sure they will be glad to receive this information, and if they get enough on one man they may be able to have him prosecuted. At least you have a better chance this way of protecting yourself in the future. If A.N.A. or any other society does not use this information now, I suggest that they start.

I would be interested in hearing from you, the collector, if you have ever been swindled in your purchase of coins.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed you will find a '61-D cent which may be of interest to you and possibly another "First" for "Coin Press" — 61-D over horizontal D.

Secondly you will find that there is a difference in the '60-P nickels. The early (LD) nickels and also in the Sm. Date proof sets the tail on the 6 has a blunt or squared end.

In the later nickels, (med, sm., re eng., etc.) and in the Large Date Proof sets the tail of the 6 appears to curve more to the right and tapers to a point.

Any comments?

There seems to be quite a difference of opinion as to what can be described as a "Collector's Item".

We think this matter should be clarified both from the viewpoint of the amateur and the professional.

Is there any standard definition accepted by the trade or by the public as to what constitutes a collector's item?

We would appreciate very much hearing from you and certainly think it would be of benefit to collectors as a whole if you would get a discussion started with an article in your paper.

We Present
THE OFFICIAL MEDAL OF THE
CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL
1861 - 1961

The Coin and Currency Institute, Inc., of New York and California has been appointed sole national distributor of this medal, which commemorates officially the centennial of the Civil War.

It will be available in both bronze and silver about May 31, 1961.

The medal which is 2½" in size, is being issued under authority of the Civil War Centennial Commission, which was created by Act of Congress. The medal will be struck by the Medallion Art Company from designs and sculptor's models that have been approved by the U.S. Government Fine Arts Commission in Washington, D.C.

As can be seen from the above illustration, the obverse bears the portraits of General Ulysses S. Grant and General Robert E. Lee. The reverse shows the seal of the Civil War Centennial Commission, having as its main theme, a Union and Confederate soldier. The medal will be sold in its own specially made container and will come with a printed, informative leaflet.

In addition to the bronze medal, there will be an issue of pure silver medals, which will be limited to 25,000 serially numbered pieces. The purity of the silver will be greater than .999.

The official prices of the Civil War Centennial Medal are as follows:

The Bronze medal	$ 4.00
The pure silver medal	30.00

(Please note: Because of the limited issue the silver medals are offered subject to being sold out. Those wishing a silver medal should place their order now. Earlier this year many thousands were disappointed when their orders for silver Inaugural medals were placed too late. Because of the overwhelming national interest in the Civil War, it is expected that the silver medals will be quickly sold out.)

The bronze and silver medals will be available about May 31, 1961 at your local coin and stamp dealer, department store coin counters, hobby shops etc., or you may write to either our New York or California office. Established dealers wishing to carry this medal for resale should write to us at once for our terms.
